

We're on the lookout for a great Senior Copywriter.

Are you a talented B2B copywriter looking for an opportunity to let your skills shine? Can you turn your hand as easily to captivating news releases as you can to longer form assets?

Want to join a team that does great work with people who are equally great to work with?

If so, we need you!

If freelance life is stressing you out - or if you're sick of working for agency  - come and work with a group of people who rate compassion as highly as skill set. We believe that it's possible to deliver our best for our clients without running yourself into the ground.

We'd consider full-time or part-time applications, with some work being handled remotely. But, some of the week will need to be spent in our office in Crowborough – otherwise how can you truly feel part of our team?!

We might not be the biggest agency in the county, but with significant growth year on year, this could be a move that sets you up for an exciting future.

As a Copywriter at Morton Waters you will:

- Create compelling copy for our range of clients operating in the built environment
- Ensure copy is in line with the clients' content strategies and tone of voice
- Research and write copy for a variety of mediums including blogs, thought leadership articles, ebooks, emails, web copy and product/service brochures, press releases and feature submissions
- Work collaboratively with clients and the rest of the team
- Sometimes work to tight deadlines
